Headline:
Dry with some sunshine on Thursday, feeling warm.

This Evening and Tonight:
Showers gradually dying out this evening. Then the rest of the night will be dry with some clear periods across the west. Rather cold under clear skies.

Thursday:
Cloud breaking up to give a dry day with some some sunny intervals, feeling pleasantly warm in the sunshine. Northern Isles may stay cloudy.

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Patchy rain in the south and west on Friday, dry elsewhere. Mainly dry over the weekend with some warm sunshine, perhaps the odd shower over high ground.
